OF HARES AND HYMNS

Walking home to Markyate from Flamstead across the fields one sunny day I felt my back start to tighten. Fearing a complete 'lockdown' I thought I'd better lie down. So in the field above the allotments I lay down in the 'gutter' between the footpath and the first row of corn. The warmth of the summer soil soon eased my aches and pains. I lay still for a moment or two relishing the breeze in the corn and the sun overhead; then I heard a rustling sound and, half lifting my head from the prone position, I peered down between the V-shape of my size 9 boots, and saw to my surprise a hare sitting about 12 ins away from my feet! I smiled at it- and it put its head on one side and looked quizzically at me, then slowly turned and just lolloped quietly away as it came !

I mention this encounter because the poet and hymnist William Cowper, way back in 1773 , wrote the hymn

'God works in a mysterious way;

His wonders to perform.'

He was a local man born in Berkhamsted and loved to walk the countryside round here. – Hence the names Cowper Rise and Cowper Road to commemorate him. He also had a thing for haresso much so that he kept 3 as pets!

It's good to think that in this very countryside that we share he felt God moving mysteriously and the need to share this with others - just as we too continue to celebrate them every Sunday here at Markyate Baptist Church at 10.30. a.m.

Come and join us, - You will be very welcome! Bring your hares too, if you can catch them!
